one of the most important books on the modernist movement in architecture written by a founder of the bauhaus school one of the most important books on the modern movement in architecture the new architecture and the bauhaus poses some of the fundamental problems presented by the relations of art and industry and considers their possible practical solution gropius traces the rise of the new architecture and the work of the now famous bauhaus and with splendid clarity calls for a new artist and architect educated to new materials and techniques and directly confronting the requirements of the age the painter designer and architect henry van de velde 1863 1957 played a crucial role in expanding modernist aesthetics beyond paris and beyond painting opposing growing nationalism around 1900 he sought to make painting the basis of an aesthetic that transcended boundaries between the arts and between nations through his work in belgium france germany and the netherlands van de velde s designs for homes museums and theaters received international recognition the artist often associated with the art nouveau and jugendstil developed a style of abstraction that he taught in his school of applied arts in weimar the immediate precursor of and model for the bauhaus as a leading member of the german werk'bund he helped shaped the fields of modern architecture and design this long awaited book the first major work on van de velde in english firmly positions him as one of the twentieth century's most influential artists and an essential voice within the modern movement the complex and shifting relation between regionalism and modernity with its search for purity honesty modesty and fitness of purpose the late 19th and early 20th century concept of architectural regionalism is seminal to the modern movement in later historiography however regionalism in europe was neglected and even labeled backward the origins of this drastic change of perception can be traced to the 1930s when regionalism as a positive form gradually turned into a closed form of regionalism a folding back on one's own region as a defence mechanism in an economically and politically turbulent decade notions of crisis have long charged the study of the european avant garde and modernism reflecting the often turbulent nature of their development throughout their history the avant garde and modernists have both confronted and instigated crises be they economic or political aesthetic or philosophical collective or individual local or global short or perennial the seventh volume in the series european avant garde and modernism studies addresses the myriad ways in which the avant garde and modernism have responded and related to crisis from the late nineteenth to the twenty first century how have europe's avant garde and modernist movements given aesthetic shape to their crisis laden trajectory given the many different watershed moments the avant garde and modernism have faced over the centuries what common threads link the critical points of their development alternatively what kinds of crises have their experimental practices and critical modes yielded the volume assembles case studies reflecting upon these questions and more from across all areas of avant garde and modernist activity including visual art literature music architecture photography theatre performance curatorial practice fashion and design dans ce dictionnaire de l'architecture du xx<sup>e</sup> siècle on y trouve les architectes bien sûr mais aussi les mouvements les revues les critiques les théoriciens les matériaux et les types créés par notre siècle de la station service à la salle de cinéma et du gratte ciel à la cité jardin on y trouve les rapports de l'architecture avec la philosophie la photographie la politique des immeubles en terre du yémen à l'art déco de miami du style empire stalinien au déconstructivisme du régionalisme belge au hitech de hon kong

this publication illustrates the specific links between several artists and an architect over almost 40 years of projects and works private houses public buildings a complicity has been forged between architectural signs and art vocabulary in addition to his interest in his belgian colleagues charles vandenhove here reveals his love of art and his loyalty to today's greatest artists from sol lewitt to daniel buren and giulio paolini to robert barry book jacket
